JUDGE SUTHERLAND'S VIEWS.

The Chances of Powers' Confirmation—The Utah Question.

Judge Sutherland, who has been absent in Washington since the beginning of January, returned home last evening. It was well known that opposition to Judge Powers' confirmation was one of the objects that called him thither, and desirous of learning what progress had been made in the fight, as well as a desire to confirm THE HERALD's frequently expressed doubts as to Powers being confirmed, a HERALD reporter called upon the gentleman last evening, and immediately plunged into the object of his errand, by asking: "Judge, what are the chances of Powers' confirmation? Have you any idea that he will be confirmed?" "Not the slightest," was the response.

Who have been the principal workers in his behalf? "Don't M. Dickinson, of Michigan, and Mr. C. W. Bennett of this city, have been the principal champions of the present judge of the first district." "Did Powers have any influential backing?"

"Yes, at first, but many of his once staunch supporters have retracted their endorsements, and that of course, leaves him in a very weak condition. Proof of a substantial character have been filed by his neighbors in Kalamazoo, the town he hails from, of a very damaging character, and they affect his integrity as a lawyer, and as a man generally. He has met with strong opposition even from his own State, prominent men, without regard to party, protesting against his confirmation."

"What is the general opinion as to Powers' legal abilities?" "You may judge of this when I say that his actions here are frequently alluded to by the members of the Senate as being decidedly humorous, and he is the subject of great laughter and ridicule among them."

"From whom did he derive his support at the outset?"

"He was mainly supported on account of Dickinson's influence—very few, if any, knew anything about him, but there is every reason to believe that even Dickinson himself is weakening, and has abandoned the idea that Powers will ever be confirmed. There was a rumor in Washington before I left that Powers had concluded to resign, and it was generally supposed that Dickinson was the authority for it. Of course, Powers may be given an opportunity to resign, but there is no reason to suppose that he will ever be confirmed."

"How soon, do you suppose, action will be taken upon his nomination?"

"It will probably be acted upon as soon as the present deadlock between the Senate and President is opened."

"Were there any Utah people at Washington in the interest of Powers, except Mr. Bennett?"

"No, Col. Merritt took no part, either one way or the other."

"What of the Utah situation in Washington, Judge? What are the prospects for the Edmunds bill passing the House?"

"As to the Edmunds bill in particular, I hardly know, but there can be no doubt that if the bill engineered by the senator from Vermont fails to become a law, something equally as harsh will go through Congress, I believe, is ready to pass anything that may tend to break up the influence of the Mormon Church in political questions in Utah, and so far as I have been able to judge, the Democrats are equally as anxious and as willing to pass such measures as the Republicans ever were. The Mormon question is a prominent topic of discussion at the Capital, and the abolition of the suffrage now held by the women of Utah is one of the principal points of attack."

LOGAN LINES.

A. O. Smoot, Jr., still sojourns with us.

C. C. Goodwin, commissioner, etc., is in town on judicial business.

E. L. Sloan is around town rustling subscriptions for THE HERALD.

Miss Tony Bernau drew quite a crowd at the rink, but her dancing and skating were very inferior.

R. V. C. M. Parks, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church of this city, is still lying ill with rheumatism, in Hyrum.

Miss Ida Hitchcock gave a very creditable reading Monday evening in the Hall. She has improved greatly since her last visit.

Jno. Bird, a resident of Mendon, committed suicide this morning by shooting himself with a rifle. He was nearly sixty years old and leaves a wife and thirteen children. No cause is assigned for the rash act.

It is rumored that a benefit will be tendered to Harry Bowring, the veteran comedian, about the first of April, in the Opera House. Willow Cope is the play and Phil Margitta plays Lake Fielding. The remainder of the cast will be made up from Logan and Brigham City talent.
